Clan leaders ask Guv to pass social custom bill

Shylla to meet Roy on March 1 over pending KHADC bills

By Our Reporter

SHILLONG: Members of the Syntak Ki Rangbah Kur ka Bri U Hyniewtrep, a conglomeration of clan elders, led by its president HS Shylla met Governor Tahagata Roy on Monday and urged him to approve the KHADC (Khasi Social Custom of Clan Administration) Bill, 2018.

Speaking to reporters, Shylla said the association wants the governor to take special interest in the bill as currently the clans are disorganised and "the bill will ensure that they organise themselves".

He said the governor has assured to look into the matter.

Shylla argued that the organisation of clans or

KHADC CEM HS Shylla along with other members of the Syntak Ki Rangbah Kur speaks to mediapersons after meeting Governor Tahagata Roy outside the Raj Bhavan in the city on Monday. (ST)

Seng Kur is for the protection of indigenous people because non-tribals often take advantage of Khasi clan surnames.

"Clan bill is simple, clans should be organised. A 'Thapa' who is a Nepali can easily be 'Thabab' only through affidavit in the court," he said, adding that the court cannot certify the identity of clans (jingling kur) except the clan.

With an aim to keep hawk eyes on the misuse of clan titles, Shylla said people can get Khasi tribe certificate from the district court after getting clan certificate from the Seng Kur, which is duly recognised by the council.

Shylla expressed concern over online application for Scheduled Tribe (ST) certificate which, he said, would open doors for non-tribals to secure the document.

In a memorandum to the governor, the Syntak said out of more than 5,204 clans, only a few have organised themselves for the purpose of their own clan members.

NEEPCO not to disrupt power supply for council polls

By Our Reporter

SHILLONG: North Eastern Electric Power Corporation Limited (NEEPCO) on Monday assured that it will not disrupt power supply to Meghalaya because of the council elections though the state government owed it over Rs 550 crore.

The power corporation, however, was not clear about its decision on uninterrupted supply for the two board examinations due next month.

Currently, MeECL is resorting to load shedding for one hour every night and it is the students, especially those preparing for board examinations from the first week of March, who are likely to face problem due to power cut.

In rural areas of the state, the power cut duration is 2 hours.

HSSLC and SSLC examinations start from March 1 and March 5, respectively.

NEEPCO, which supplies around 140-150 MW of power to Meghalaya, regulated supply since the state government has not cleared dues of over Rs 550 crore.

A senior official, who was asked whether NEEPCO will consider the upcoming exams, said the government will take up the matter with the Corporation.

"Besides NEEPCO, we have pending dues to others. We will explore ways and means to clear a part of the pending dues to NEEPCO so that the students do not suffer", the official added.

Romnie targets regional parties on citizenship bill

By Our Reporter

SHILLONG: Former Cabinet Minister Romnie V Lyngdoh has accused the regional of not taking a stand on the contentious Citizenship (Amendment) Bill.

Lyngdoh said the district councils were created to protect the interest of the indigenous people of Meghalaya but "the idea of issuing work permit to Bangladeshi citizens and CAB is contrary to the Sixth Schedule". The senior Congress leader was referring to Chief Minister Conrad Sangma's proposal to issue work permit to Bangladeshis. The statement came from Lyngdoh a day after the UDF senior leader, Allantny Dkhak accused the Congress of running a misinformation campaign.

He said the party is telling people that they have only two choices, the Congress and BJP, because all the regional parties in Meghalaya are shadow of the saffron party.

By Our Reporter
SHILLONG: West Jaintia Hills police have made elaborate security arrangements for the district council election counting on Saturday.

In a statement issued on Monday, SP Lakadur Syiem said there will be a three tier security system at the office of the deputy commissioner in Jowai. The first tier will be outside the three gates of the office that is Gate I (Near HDFC ATM), Gate II (DC office) and Gate III (DS office), the second tier will be on the premises of the office and the third tier will be at the entry-exit point.

Only candidates, counting agents and two persons

"There is no doubt about it. Before elections, they denied having links with BJP but everything became crystal clear after the elections," Lyngdoh said.

Stating that the regional parties in the state are agents of BJP, Lyngdoh said when the issue of CAB was raised, one of the regional parties and their MLAs took a stand like AGP in Assam where they dared to come out of the BJP-led alliance and even their ministers resigned.

Hike in minimum pension need budgetary support: EPFO

SOMESH JHA

New Delhi, 25 February

The Employees' Provident Fund Organisation (EPFO) has informed the government that the minimum pension for its subscribers may be doubled to ₹2,000 per month with budgetary support.

"It will be difficult to hike the minimum pension from the present ₹1,000 a month without budgetary support," said a senior EPFO official. However, he didn't specify the budgetary burden should the minimum pension increase.

An empowered committee, set up by the labour and employment ministry, in its report submitted to the government in December had recommended that the minimum monthly member pension may be hiked to ₹2,000, provided the central government budgetary support is provided for it on a yearly basis.

The labour ministry has now moved a Cabinet note against some of its recommendations, according to a source. It has been reviewed by Business Standard.

However, some of the EPFO's central board of trustee members, in a meeting held last week, demanded hiking the minimum pension to ₹3,000 per month to bring it in line with the PM Shram Yogi Maandhan scheme for unorganised workers, which was announced in the Interim Budget.

The committee has further recommended a modification in the Employees' Pension Scheme, run by the EPFO, to disallow pre-mature withdrawal of provident fund savings and

EPFO reviews exempted firms' investments in IL&FS

The Employees' Provident Organisation (EPFO) is reviewing the investments made by companies, managing their own provident fund, in the crisis-hit Infrastructure Leasing & Financial Services (IL&FS). The EPFO has written to 1,374 companies managing employees' provident fund (EPF) accounts of their employees on their own, known as exempted firms, asking them for information on their exposure to IL&FS, a top EPFO official said on Monday. "In any case, employees will not bear any loss. The law says that exempted firms will have to bear the loss for its bad investments," the official added. The EPFO is expected to get an update within two weeks.

to fix a minimum monthly contribution towards pension. At present, both employers and employees are mandated to contribute an equal share, 12 per cent of the monthly income component, towards EPFO. Trump calls on Opec to 'relax', oil prices tumble

BLOOMBERG

London, 25 February

US President Donald Trump resumed his attacks on Opec, saying the world is too dependent on a cartel to "relax and take it easy."

Trump's war of words with the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries punctuated big price swings in 2018, as he pressured the group to keep the taps open to help consumers. His latest move was no exception and crude crashed 30 cents in New York.

The president's intervention follows a price rally of about $5 per cwt this year due to production cuts from Opec and its allies, diminishing fears about the economic impact of the cuts. Trump's move comes as the US-China trade war and Washington's imposition of sanctions on Venezuelan oil shipments.

"We might see a less aggressive stance on supply cuts from the Saudis this time, but they might stop them from cutting deeper," said Giovanni Staunovo, an analyst at UBS Group AG in Zurich.

Buffett says Berkshire overpaid for Kraft Heinz

REUTERS

New York, 25 February

Warren Buffett (pictured) said on Monday that his company Berkshire Hathaway overpaid for the merger that created Kraft Heinz. Berkshire and Brazilian firm 3G Capital had teamed up in 2015 to combine the former Kraft Foods with the H J Heinz. They own about half of the merged company, with Berkshire holding a 26.7 per cent stake.

"We overpaid for Kraft," Buffett said on CNBC television. "I was wrong in a couple of ways on Kraft Heinz."

Buffett spoke four days after Kraft Heinz took a $15.4 billion write-down for its Kraft and Oscar Mayer brands and other assets, slashed its dividend, and said the US Securities and Exchange Commission was probing its accounting. Kraft Heinz also said a turnaround effort was under way.

Kraft Heinz tumbled 27.5 per cent on Friday, causing Berkshire to lose $4.3 billion on its stake.

Buffett said he had learned about the SEC probe about seven to 10 days before it was announced. Greg Abel, a Berkshire vice chairman who is widely considered a candidate to succeed the 88-year-old Buffett as Berkshire's chief executive officer, sits on Kraft Heinz's board.

Buffett acknowledged these changes, but said greater pressure is coming from retailers such as Amazon, Walmart and Costco. Wholesale, including through the latter's Kirkland brand.

'MEIS benefits allowed for exports through courier'

CHATROOM

T N CHIRANJEEVAN

We are a manufacturer-exporter of engineering goods (automobile parts). We make regular exports through couriers. Para 3.06 (i) of FTP restricts MEIS benefits to only Appendix 3C items for exports through couriers. Our item finds no mention in Appendix 3C. We are not sure whether our exports, exported through courier are eligible for MEIS. Please clarify.

Para 3.06 (i) of FTP deals with exports of goods through courier or the foreign post office, using e-commerce. As per Para 9.17 (a) of FTP, "e-commerce" for the purpose of Merchandise Exports from India Scheme (MEIS) under Foreign Trade Policy (2015-20) (FTP) shall mean the export of goods posted on a website accessible through the internet to a purchaser. While the dispatch of goods shall be made through courier or postal mode, as specified under the MEIS, the payment for goods purchased on e-commerce platform shall be done through international credit/debit cards and as per the Reserve Bank of India Circular (RBI/2015-16/185) (A.P. (DIR) Series Circular No. 16 dated September 24, 2015) as amended from time to time. Since your exports are not through e-commerce platform, you are eligible for MEIS under the general provisions for MEIS. You must, however, ask the courier to file a shipping bill in your name indicating your intent to claim MEIS.

We are merchant exporters having an export order in our name from a buyer abroad. Can we ask our supporting manufacturer to export the goods and file the shipping bill. As per Para 2.42 of FTP, "Third party exports (except Deemed Export) as defined in Chapter 9 shall be allowed under FTP. As per Para 9.60 of FTP, "Third-party exports" means exports made by an exporter or manufacturer on behalf of another exporter(s). In such cases, export documents such as shipping bills shall indicate names of both manufacturer exporter/manufacturer and third party exporter(s). Bank Realisation Certificate (BRC), Self Declaration Form (SDF), export order and invoice should be in the name of third party exporter. So, the manufacturer can file the shipping bill on behalf of the merchant exporter.

Can an Indian resident (buyer) place an export order with another Indian resident (seller) for shipping goods to a consignee abroad? No. As per Regulation 8 of Foreign Exchange Management (Export of Goods and Services) Regulations, 2015, "Unless otherwise authorised by the Reserve Bank, the amount representing the full export value of the goods exported shall be paid through an authorised dealer in the manner specified in the Foreign Exchange Management (Manner of Receipt and Payments) Regulations, 2000 as amended from time to time." This is reiterated at Para A3 of RBI Master Direction No. 16/2015-16 dated January 1, 2016. Para A2 of the same Master Direction says that it is obligatory on the part of the exporter to realise and repatriate the full value of goods/services to India within a stipulated period from the date of export. These stipulations cannot be complied with where the Indian party (resident) makes payment in Indian rupees.
